PRECEPTOR SELECTION CRITERIA
IDAHO STATE UNIVERSITY COLLEGE OF PHARMACY

Preceptor Selection Criteria

● Must be a licensed pharmacist, and in good standing with the board of pharmacy as required by the practice environment and should not have any restrictions or sanctions place on their practice.

● It is desirable for a preceptor to be licensed pharmacist for at least 24 months and have a minimum of three month at their practice site, to be familiar with aspects, routines, policies, procedures and personnel.

● Must show a commitment to professional development and life-long learning through involvement in local, state, and national professional organizations, continuing education programs, and preceptor training requirements stipulated by the College of Pharmacy.

● Must be a role-model who maintain high professional standards and abides by the Code of Ethics provided by the American Pharmaceutical Association.

● Must have the professional training and experience in their particular practice specialty to develop an innovative practice site which fosters student education.

● Must demonstrate a good relationship other pharmacist, physicians and other health care providers and exhibit a caring attitude toward the pharmacy student and patients.

● Must fully abide by all conditions and requirements as stipulated by the “Affiliation Agreement” between the College of Pharmacy and institution he/she practices.

● Be willing to accept responsibility for providing instruction, supervision and evaluation required for students to complete assignments and achieve competency in the site specific objective.

● Preceptor must spend the majority of their time providing patient-centered care in their facility and have sufficient freedom to spent a large percentage of their time directly involved with the student to provide learning opportunities in all areas of the practice site.

● Must offer specific rotation experience in accordance with the goals and objectives specified by the College of Pharmacy.

● Preceptors should be readily available to the student, must regularly interact with students several times per week, use good communication skills to teach students, provide positive feedback, provide mid-point and final evaluations on the student’s performance.

● Preceptors must take part in preceptor training, education and development offered by the College of pharmacy.

● Must not discriminate in any way based on race, color, religion, national origin, sex, age or disability.